But know that Jehovah hath set apart for himself him that is godly: Jehovah will hear when I call unto him.
