

A detailed black and white line drawing of a forest landscape. In the foreground, a stream flows through a rocky bed, with several large and small stones visible. The banks are lined with various plants and shrubs. Tall, slender trees with dense foliage frame the scene on both sides. In the background, a range of mountains is visible under a sky with soft, wispy clouds. The overall style is that of a traditional woodcut or a detailed pencil sketch.

As for the saints that are in the earth, They are the excellent in whom is all my delight.
