

A black and white line drawing of a forest scene. In the foreground, a stream flows over several large, flat rocks. The water is depicted with simple wavy lines. The banks of the stream are covered with various types of grass and small plants. In the middle ground, there are several tall, slender trees with dense, needle-like foliage, resembling evergreens. The background features a range of mountains with jagged peaks, partially obscured by more trees. The overall style is that of a hand-drawn illustration, possibly for a children's book or a religious poster.
