

A black and white line drawing of a forest scene. In the background, there are several trees with detailed trunks and branches. The ground is covered with various plants, including small flowers and grasses. The overall style is a simple line art suitable for coloring.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou hast anointed my head with oil; My cup runneth over.