For I have heard the defaming of many, Terror on every side: While they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.
